

Located in midtown Manhattan the Law Office of James Kousouros handles all types of criminal prosecutions under state and federal laws. These cases include prosecutions for white-collar crimes such as complex securities violations, Medicaid, Medicare and healthcare fraud, pharmaceutical industry fraud, and tax fraud. They also include charges for racketeering, homicide, narcotics violations, DWI, and simple assault, among many others. (See, Notable Cases).

All Stages of Representation

As an inherent part of his practice, Mr. Kousouros and his team represent clients in all stages of the criminal process:

- › pre-arrest investigatory stage
- › grand jury proceedings
- › indictment
- › plea negotiations
- › trial
- › all levels of the appellate process—including post conviction litigation and appeals

We also represent clients before various regulatory review boards.

National and International Presence

Mr. Kousouros appears in state and federal courts throughout the country, as well as international courts.

A Commitment to Every Client

James Kousouros' clients have come from every walk of life, and their James Kousouros' clients have come from every walk of life, and their cases have been of both high notoriety and of little notice. In either case, Mr. Kousouros has demonstrated his commitment to providing an equally vigorous, aggressive and effective defense for each and every one of his clients

Frequent Client Contact

Mr. Kousouros not only believes in frequent client contact, he insists on it. This insistence comes from his firm belief that a client's participation in his or her own defense is crucial —not only to ensure that every case is properly and thoroughly investigated, but to ensure that his client fully understands and considers all of the options available. For Mr. Kousouros, the benefits of full client participation are essential to his firm's goal of achieving the best resolution possible.

SERVICES PROVIDED

Personalized Attention

If you, or someone you know, is facing or fearing a criminal investigation or prosecution, you need a criminal defense attorney who is:

- ◆ trustworthy
- ◆ an expert in the field
- ◆ attentive and compassionate

You also need someone you are convinced will:

- ◆ protect you
- ◆ fight zealously and aggressively for you
- ◆ be the person you want by your side throughout the proceedings

James Kousouros honors these qualities, and is committed to providing them to each and every one of his clients.

Crafting Resolutions with Your Needs in Mind

Mr. Kousouros understands how disruptive criminal charges can be for an individual both personally and professionally — and he will do everything possible to protect:

- ◆ your professional license
- ◆ your employment status
- ◆ our immigration status

The Benefits of a Small Firm, with Advantages of a Large One

The Law Offices of James Kousouros offers you the benefits of a small firm—a personalized and comfortable environment where your needs are paramount—with the same legal resources available to the larger firms:

- ◆ private investigators and bail bondsmen
- ◆ forensic experts
- ◆ interpreters
- ◆ the latest in electronic databases for court documents and case data

James Kousouros’ Promise to his Clients

Mr. Kousouros will promise to fight—vigorously, relentlessly, strategically, and effectively—at every stage of your defense. He will use everything at his disposal

- ◆ his deep knowledge of the law
- ◆ his thorough command of the intricacies of the criminal justice system
- ◆ his familiarity with the theories and tactics of the prosecutors
- ◆ the results of his thorough investigation into the facts and circumstances of your case to develop a strategy that will take advantage of every opportunity that arises during negotiations, the pretrial process, and at trial.

There were thousands of documents...I was fully acquitted...I got my life back, thanks to you James. –LiJing

My job was in jeopardy...I have my license back and my job back...James helped me get in an alcohol program. –Tommy

THE PROCESS

Free Consultation In most cases, Mr. Kousouros will provide you with a free consultation during which he will assess your situation. First, he will determine if you need a lawyer, and then he will determine if he is the right one for you. Then he will spend time reviewing your case and discussing it with you. These conversations will be substantive ones, not sales pitches. He will ask you to bring your paperwork with you to the meeting or send it to him in advance. If the case is electronically filed he will review it prior to meeting with you.

What you can expect An honest and direct appraisal of your criminal case. You will hear what you need to hear in order to make an informed decision that is rooted in the realities of your case. You will not hear promises nor receive any guarantees of particular outcomes— no lawyer can or should provide such assurances. You will hear the truth.

Pre-Arrest In those cases where the client is under investigation and has not been arrested, Mr. Kousouros will contact authorities to ensure that his client is not questioned unless he is at his client’s side. He will review the facts with the client and often commence his own investigation in order to gather evidence to assist in his efforts to prevent an arrest—an outcome he has often achieved. If an arrest is unavoidable, Mr. Kousouros will exercise his best efforts to arrange for a voluntary surrender and spare his client the indignity of a public arrest.

What you can expect The benefit of his long and mutually respectful relationships with both law enforcement and prosecutorial agencies. This is not a time to be antagonistic – it is a time to respectfully discuss a client’s situation with the authorities and to do everything possible to ensure they will be willing to listen.

Investigation Mr. Kousouros will immediately conduct meetings with his client in order to get a full and complete account of who his client is and the circumstances surrounding the criminal charges. Every case involves these two components—the case and the person. If it turns out that the case is too strong, mitigation is often found in the person.

What you can expect Mr. Kousouros will take all necessary steps and precautions to ensure that evidence is preserved, leads are investigated, witnesses are located and interviewed, and all evidence is examined. He will also visit the scene – a step that is critical to an effective defense. These efforts will allow him to identify both the strengths and the weaknesses in the prosecution’s case—a task indispensable to pre-trial hearings, trial preparation and plea negotiations.

Negotiations The results of Mr. Kousouros’ thorough investigation, together with his expertise in the law and mastery of the criminal process, combine to place him in a very strong position during plea negotiations.

What you can expect An advocate who has the respect and ear of prosecuting authorities as well as a partner who will do everything in his power to obtain the best resolution possible.

Pre-trial Motions Mr. Kousouros will use his considerable experience to strategically navigate the pre-trial process in a manner that safeguards all of his client’s rights and best interests. He will assert all standard legal rights of his client in his motion papers, but he will also use his creativity and dexterity to devise novel arguments and positions where appropriate.

What you can expect Mr. Kousouros’ motions are, like all other areas of his practice, of the highest quality and consistently earn the praise of judges and prosecutors alike.

Trial Having tried scores of cases in both state and federal courts, Mr. Kousouros has developed and mastered the most effective strategies for all aspects of trial litigation—from jury selection, opening argument, and courtroom presentation to cross examination and closing argument. (Profile).

What you can expect Complete confidence that you have received what you

There were thousands of documents...I was fully acquitted...I got my life back, thanks to you James. –LiJing

My job was in jeopardy...I have my license back and my job back...James helped me get in an alcohol program. –Tommy